

Kessler:
FBI, CIA Successes
Go Unsung by Obama

John L. Perry

RSS ARCHIVE

Print Page | Forward Page | E-mail Us

Obama Risks a Domestic Military 'Intervention'

Tuesday, September 29, 2009 10:35 AM

Article Font Size - +

By: John L. Perry

There is a remote, although gaining, possibility America's military will intervene as a last resort to resolve the "Obama problem." Don't dismiss it as unrealistic.

America isn't the Third World. If a military coup does occur here it will be civilized. That it has never happened doesn't mean it won't. Describing what may be afoot is not to advocate it. So, view the following through military eyes:

- Officers swear to "support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic." Unlike enlisted personnel, they do not swear to "obey the orders of the president of the United States."
- Top military officers can see the Constitution they are sworn to defend being trampled as American institutions and enterprises are nationalized.
- They can see that Americans are increasingly alarmed that this nation, under President Barack Obama, may not even be recognizable as America by the 2012 election, in which he will surely seek continuation in office.
- They can see that the economy — ravaged by deficits, taxes, unemployment, and impending inflation — is financially reliant on foreign lender governments.
- They can see this president waging undeclared war on the intelligence community, without whose rigorous and independent functions the armed services are rendered blind in an ever-more hostile world overseas and at home.
- They can see the dismantling of defenses against missiles targeted at this nation by avowed enemies, even as America's troop strength is allowed to sag.
- They can see the horror of major warfare erupting simultaneously in two, and possibly three, far-flung theaters before America can react in time.
- They can see the nation's safety and their own military establishments and honor placed in jeopardy as never before.

So, if you are one of those observant military professionals, what do you do?

Wait until this president bumbles into losing the war in Afghanistan, and Pakistan's arsenal of nuclear bombs falls into the hands of militant Islam?

Wait until Israel is forced to launch air strikes on Iran's nuclear-bomb plants, and the Middle East explodes, destabilizing or subjugating the Free World?

What happens if the generals Obama sent to win the Afghan war are told by this president (who now says, "I'm not interested in victory") that they will be denied troops they must have to win? Do they follow orders they cannot carry out, consistent with their oath of duty? Do they resign en masse?

Or do they soldier on, hoping the 2010 congressional elections will reverse the situation? Do they dare gamble the national survival on such political whims?

Anyone who imagines that those thoughts are not weighing heavily on the intellect and conscience of America's military leadership is lost in a fool's fog.

Will the day come when patriotic general and flag officers sit down with the president, or with those who control him, and work out the national equivalent of a "family intervention," with some form of limited, shared responsibility?

Imagine a bloodless coup to restore and defend the Constitution through an interim administration that would do the serious business of governing and defending the nation. Skilled, military-trained, nation-builders would replace accountability-challenged, radical-left commissars. Having bonded with his twin teleprompters, the president would be detailed for ceremonial speech-making.

Military intervention is what Obama's exponentially accelerating agenda for "fundamental change" toward a Marxist state is inviting upon America. A coup is not an ideal option, but Obama's radical ideal is not acceptable or reversible.

Unthinkable? Then think up an alternative, non-violent solution to the Obama problem. Just don't shrug and say, "We can always worry about that later."

In the 2008 election, that was the wistful, self-indulgent, indifferent reliance on abnegation of personal responsibility that has sunk the nation into this morass.

John L. Perry, a prize-winning newspaper editor and writer who served on White House staffs of two presidents, is a regular columnist for Newsmax.com. Read John Perry's columns here.

© 2009 Newsmax. All rights reserved.

Print Page | Forward Page | E-mail Us

Special Links:

- ▶ You Can Stop Arthritis, Doctor Says
- ▶ Get the Hat Worn By Our Troops, Just Pay Shipping!
- ▶ Newsmax Gold Expert Reveals his Top Pick. Today Only!
- ▶ Beat cancer, heart disease, and slow aging.

Japan abandons America
The USS America is sinking—and Japan is getting off while it can.
theTRUMPET.com
UNDERSTAND YOUR WORLD

Top News

- Democrats Reject Photo ID for Healthcare Benefits
- Dem. Rep: GOP Wants Sick to 'Die Quickly'
- On Deadline, Senate Works to Avoid Gov't Shutdown
- Gen. Odierno: Don't Lose Sight of Iraq
- Dem Congressman Refuses to Apologize for Comment
- N.Y. GOP Taps Nixon Son-In-Law As Chairman

Community Organizing U.N.
Community Organizing Obama tells UN: No one nation can dominate.

Ann Coulter
Sign up today to get Free weekly email alerts from Ann Coulter!

Diabetic?
Diabetes medications don't work? We've got the answer and free offer.

OREXIS
This little blue pill is amazing! Ladies love guys that take it.

FREE PC SCAN
click here
Get your PC to run like new. Eliminate errors that slow down computers.

Free Handgun
Millionaire Patriot Arms and Trains You - Get Course, CCW, Gun

Shocking New Studies Reveal
Warning: 'Heart Healthy' Diet Killing Millions

CANBY GROVE
Plan your PERFECT CHURCH RETREAT!
BOOK TODAY

Doctor Warns:
Click Here Now

BIG PHARMA'S BIG LIE!
Click Here

Join Us For The 2010 Newsmax Caribbean Cruise
March 21 - 28, 2010
Click Here for Details and to Book Now!